Hashtag United Women stepped into the limelight by assuming control of AFC Basildon and securing their position in the competitive F.A. Women's National League Division One South, maintaining their residency at Canvey Island's Park Lane.

Although the 2020–21 season was abbreviated due to the pervasive impact of Covid-19, the subsequent season witnessed Hashtag United Women clinching the runners-up spot, trailing just behind Billericay. Despite this, they concluded the season on a high note by securing their inaugural silverware in a captivating triumph over Billericay in the Essex Women's Cup Final at Aveley.

The pinnacle of success was reached at the conclusion of the 2022–23 season when Hashtag United Women claimed the National League Division One South title, establishing themselves as champions by finishing four points ahead of AFC Wimbledon.

Marking their inaugural season in the third tier, The Tags commenced with a remarkable streak of victories against formidable opponents, namely Oxford, Ipswich, Portsmouth, and Rugby, setting the stage for a very strong runners-up spot behind Portsmouth.

Their seasons was capped with the team lifting the National League Cup at Luton Town's Kenilworth Road ground, having beaten Newcastle United 2–1. This was then followed by lifting the Essex Women's Cup at Dagenham & Redbridge.

HEAD-TO-HEAD

Today will be the tenth meeting between today's teams.

United have won 7 of the previous meetings with the other two matches being drawn.

Town have scored 12 times in the previous fixtures, with United scoring 24.
