LEST WE FORGET

AFC WIMBLEDON | NATIONAL LEAGUE | SUNDAY 10 NOVEMBER 2024 | 2:00PM

WELCOME TO NEW LODGE

The Blues are back at New Lodge for the first time since the 2-1 win against Lewes.

Our last three matches have seen us exit the League Cup at Plymouth, which is our first defeat against Argyle and first defeat in Devon.

This was followed by a 4-0 league defeat against Oxford United and then a 1st Round FA Cup exit at Peterborough United.

This leaves us still in the Essex Women's Cup and the Isthmian Women's Cup.

Bowers & Pitsea pulled out of the Isthmian Women's Cup giving us a bye into the next round, where we will host Haringey Borough.

The league match at Exeter City has been arranged for Sunday 1st December.

Last week the club parted ways with striker Kara Fordjour. Kara joined us in the summer and made 8 appearances for The Blues, scoring 1 goal.

If you would like to produce the BTFC Women's Programme for the 2025-26 season, please get in touch.

Player of the Match

Charlotte O'SHEA

The Blues fell behind against a tough Lewes side in the 49th minute. Eleven minutes later and Billericay were ahead. Great work by V gave Abbi the chance to score a screamer. Eight minutes later and Ylenia gets the final touch on Bonnie's corner. Those were the first Billericay goals for both players.

The club was established when the ladies team representing Wimbledon F.C. chose to join AFC Wimbledon following the relocation of the former club.

On Sunday, October 24, 2021, AFC Wimbledon secured a 7-1 victory against Walton Casuals in the FA Cup 3rd qualifying round, marking their inaugural match at the main Plough Lane Stadium.

Originally named AFC Wimbledon Ladies, the club rebranded as "AFC Wimbledon Women" before the start of the 2022-23 season.

In April 2024, the club was crowned champions of Division One South East, earning promotion to the Premier Division South for the 2024-25 season.

HEAD-TO-HEAD

This afternoon is the sixth meeting between Billericay Town and AFC Wimbledon, with the first coming in September 2018, a 1-0 home win for The Blues. The Dons won the return leg, 2-1.

The most recent meeting came in the F.A. Cup in November 2022. Wimbledon won the match 2-0.

Of those five matches both sides have two wins with a 0-0 draw played at Plough Lane. Town have scored 4 goals with Wimbledon scoring 5.

In Wimbledon's squad is former Blue, Leanne Bell.

Leanne joined us last season and was part of the team that lifted the Isthmian Women's Cup.

Leanne made 31 starts, 1 sub appearance and scored 3 goals.
